

JOURNÉE D'ÉTUDE

Historiographie et militantisme Historiography and Activism

Cas (Ea 801)-Gena
Université de Toulouse II-Le Mirail

11 Octobre 2013
MAISON DE LA RECHERCHE

SALLE D31

UNIVERSITÉ
DE TOULOUSE
LE MIRAIL

Institut des
Amériques

Historiographie et militantisme
Historiography and Activism

9h15

Ouverture / Opening (Anne Stefani and Nathalie Dessens, U. of Toulouse II-Le Mirail)

9h45

Conférence / Keynote Lecture
Hélène Le Dantec-Lowry (U. of Paris 3) "The Moynihan Report: When Government Meets Activists and Social Scientists"
Moderator Anne Stefani, U. of Toulouse II-Le Mirail

10h45

Pause café / Coffee Break

11h15-12h15 Session 1

L'héritage du Mouvement pour les Droits Civiques
The Legacy of the Civil Rights Movement
Moderator Anne Stefani, U. of Toulouse II-Le Mirail

11h15

Olivier Maheo (U. of Paris 3), Manning Marable, militant et historien: redéfinir une histoire des afro-américains."

11h45

Ambre Ivoll (U. of Nantes), Howard Zinn's Politics of History: Reassessing the Current Historiographical Significance of A People's History of the United States from 1492 to the Present Day.

12h15

Pause déjeuner / Lunch Break

14h-16h Session 2

Histoire et diversité dans l'Amérique contemporaine
History and Diversity in Today's America
Moderator Nathalie Dessens, U. of Toulouse II-Le Mirail

14h

Hélène Charley (U. of Toulouse II-Le Mirail), Bringing the Girls Home: Black Feminist Activism and Visibility in Home Girls (1983/2000).

14h30

Kenneth Aslakson (Union College, United States), From the Exotic to the American: The Push for Diversity and the Historiography of New Orleans.

15h00

Sonia Rose (U. of Toulouse II-Le Mirail), Latin American Scholars in the United States: Historicising (Post)Coloniality the South American Way.

15h30

Pause café/Coffee Break